SPANISH

Don Quijote

¡ESPLÉNDIDO ESPAÑOL!

NEW ENTRY Suburban Spanish fare is something you'd expect to find in the back streets of Barcelona, not a shophouse bordering Bukit Batok. But in just nine months, Don Quijote has become the casa of choice for lovers of Spain's lip smacking food and wine. The blink-and-you'll-miss-it establishment off Jalan Jurong Kechil boasts a bountiful array of delicioso classics, like the sizzling seafood paella Valenciana with its rice in a pan, pinchos morunos (beef on the spit), rollitos de espárragos y beicon (asparagus and bacon rolls) and the pastel de chocolate caliente (hot chocolate cake). Complement it all with a glass - or three - of sangria and you'll be rolling your r's before the bill arrives.

17 Lorong Kilat (6465 1811, www.don-quijote-restaurants.com) Bus: 57, 66, 77, 174, 970. Tue-Sun 5-11pm; brunch on Sundays. Main courses $16-$28.
